MRS. KEYS SUES COOK BREWING CO.

Alleges Cook Brewing Co.'s Agent
Sold Beer to Her Husband and the McCrackens on Sunday.

IS SAID TO HAVE GOOD CASE.

Mrs. Emma Keys, widow of the late Jesse Keys, who was stabbed to death by the McCrackens brothers on the Ohio river a few Sundays ago, was in town Monday and employed Attorney E. C. Vance to file a suit against the Cook Brewing Co., of Evansville, Ind., for sale of beer to her husband and the McCrackens, which resulted in the drunken debauch in which Keys lost his life. The suit will be filed in a day or two at Cannelton, where it is alleged the agent of the Cook Co. sold the beer to the above named in a case. Mrs. Keys will ask for $10,000 for herself and for $10,000 each for her three children. We understand that Mrs. Keys has a good cause of action against this company. It is said that the fact that the product was sold in violation of law (on Sunday) clinches any doubt about her chances to recover damages, but, of course, the suit is likely to be vigorously resisted. —Hancock Clarion.

at The West End Ball Field
Sunday Afternoon.

TUCKER SAWED FOURTEEN MEN

In a pretty game of base ball Sunday, at the West End ball diamond, the Cloverport Reds defeated the Tobacco Indians by the score of 6 to 4. The feature of the game was the splendid pitching of B. Tucker along with his good support. The Cloverport boys challenge any team under 16 years of age. Address all communications to E. Kinder, manager, or "Penny" Graham, capt., Cloverport, Kentucky.

USE OF CONFETTI

Causes Several Encounters at the Carnival.

There were several encounters at the carnival last night as a result of the use of confetti. Very little confetti is thrown this year. The style used is to stuff it down one's throat by force. This was tried on a stranger last night and the result was that a young man had his front teeth loosened for being too gay. The Woodmen of the World, under whose auspices the carnival is being given, endeavored last night to stop the methods used by the gay carnival attendants, but with little success. —Owensboro Messenger.

THE NEW M., H. AND E. RAILROAD

Has Reached and Passed Hartford
—Work is Progressing Splendidly

GREEN RIVER BRIDGE STEEL.

The new M., H. & E. railroad reached Hartford promptly on time, as announced in last week's Herald, and numbers of our citizens stepped over to the track to view the work, says the Hartford Herald. The track layer, although simple of construction, is a wonder in the way of laying rails with exactness and dispatch. The big crew of darkies carry the work along with oil speed.

The new depot site is one of the prettiest in this part of the state. The switch grounds are level and commodious. A splendid perspective is had looking northeast, where there is a straight stretch of track for half a mile, affording a fine and unobstructed view of an approaching train. The depot, we understand, will be of modern construction, provided with every convenience. The location is only about two squares from the Ohio county courthouse.

The track-layer and work crew had yesterday reached and crossed Muddy creek bridge, which is about two miles south of Hartford. They are progressing with their usual speed and will soon reach Centertown. From there on to Smallhouse on Green river, will require only a short while. Work on the large steel bridge to span Green river at that point is progressing well. Track has been completed from Moorman, about three miles on the other side of Smallhouse to Green river at the latter point. It will only be a few months until rails are making schedule time over the new Madisonville, Hartford and Eastern railroad.

IN LOVE WITH JACK.

Cloverport Charmed With the Cotton Blossom Floating Theater.

"Down in Hickory Valley," the drama given on the Cotton Blossom showboat Monday night, was splendidly received by a large audience at this port.

Jack Reese, the cow boy, starred in the play. And all the girls went home in love with Jack.

Opelia was also greatly admired for her beauty and simplicity of make up. —Miss Gilliland III.

Miss Alpha Gilliland, who was to have taken a prominent part in the vaudeville of the Epworth League carnival, is seriously ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Gilliland. Her illness is regretted by the young people of Cloverport, and they hope her recovery will be rapid.

Pate-Shumate.

Mrs. Leah E. Pate, of Irvington, and J. R. Shumate, a farmer residing near Brandenburg, were married yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Louisville Hotel by the Rev. C. C. Marriott. The bride is a sister of Jesse C. Payne, assistant cashier of the Kentucky and Indiana Bank. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shumate left for their home near Brandenburg. —Friday's Louisville Times.

THE CARNIVAL WAS A SUCCESS

The Epworth Leaguers Gave a Grand and Glorious Entertainment For Lovers of a Good and Jolly Time. Folks Get Happy. Spend Their Money and Eat Confetti.

Committee Well Pleased With Results of the Financial Efforts. Proceeds Two Hundred and Seventy Dollars.

'Not since the people played hop-skip and jump when they were little folks, have they had so much fun as they did at the street carnival given in this city by the Epworth League, Thursday and Friday nights. All the members and many of their friends buckled their energies together and made the affair one great occasion of mirth. Every feature from the Tague gas lights to the Hawserville band were sparkling with pleasure and merriment.

The booths were most attractive this time and were well patronized. The vaudeville, the wax show, the side show the clowns and the fire works and the confetti made up the success of the carnival. Each feature was thoroughly enjoyed and the committee is congratulated for its excellent management of its third annual carnival. —The News recommends the Epworth League entertainments to Breckenridge county and all people seeking first class amusement.

Every Sunday at 6:45 o'clock the League holds devotional meetings in the Methodist church and an invitation is extended to visitors and friends to attend.

THE HOG MARKET.

Highest Price Since June, 1902.
$8.05 Was Reached on Chicago Market.

BIG HOGS FETCH THE PRICE.

The hog market has been "bullish" for some time. Optimists have predicted that live hogs would sell for $8.00 per hundred this season. But the prediction met many skeptics. However the question was settled last Monday, June 14, when car load lots of hogs sold for $8.05 per hundred. This is the highest price reached since 1902, and carrying that period the highest since 1893. It is the highest price for June hogs since 1892, when the high point was $8.50. In September, 1898, prices reached $9.25. Of course there are various explanations of the present high price of hogs. The one most generally given and accepted is short supply and increasing consumption. Possibly the most logical explanation is that the high price of corn has caused the early marketing of immature and light hogs and a real scarcity of heavy fat hogs. This has caused the supply of lard to run short and the market is looking for hogs that will yield the most lard. It is significant that the $8.05 hog last Monday averaged over 300 pounds. Whatever the reason, the interesting fact is that a good porker is now worth gold dollars and many of them.

Mrs. Manerva E. Barnett Dead.

WHEAT HARVEST

Will Be on in Full Blast This Week.

The Owensboro Inquirer says: "Wheat is already so far that it is predicted that by Monday most of the farmers can go into the field with binders and begin the harvest. One or two have already started machines to work, but nothing much will be done until Monday."

"As has been previously stated in this paper, there has never been a time that the wheat looked better and when the outlook was more promising for an abundant crop at prices which will give farmers a big profit on their year's work."

"One farmer remarked Saturday morning that he was more than pleased with the present outlook for corn. There was some trouble in the opening of the season on account of corn which did not come through, as the weather had been too cold of wet for the most part, all corn fields in this locality now present a most promising appearance."

FARMERS SIGNING UP.

Two Tobacco Associations Have Canvassers in Field And Are Well Pleased.

The Green River Tobacco association has about eight agents going through the county securing pledges for the pool of this fall. All of the agents have met with great success and claim that they will have more pledges signed this year than they received last year. One representative of the Green River association worked on the Calhoun road Friday and signed all of the farmers on that road with the exception of three. The home warehouse people are also circulating the pledges and are receiving great encouragement, their representatives securing numerous signatures for their pooling pledges. —Owensboro Inquirer.

THOROUGH ORGANIZATION

The Only Safe Plan to Secure
Good Prices For This Year's Crop of Tobacco.

AN UNUSUAL BIG CROP.

S. B. Robertson, of Calhoun, state secretary of the A. S. of E. was in the city on Thursday, says the Owensboro Messenger, on his way to Louisville where the state board was called to meet in connection with the tobacco question in the Burley region. Mr. Robertson admits that there is an unusual crop of tobacco this year not only here but in other districts and he says he believes the only safety is in thorough organization for the holding of any surplus that may accumulate as the result of the present heavy crop. If organization does not save the farmers from the natural results of a big bumper crop he says he expects to see growers going through the streets of the city, as often before, begging for bids on their tobacco.

STATE UNIVERSITY

Honors Wallace Babbage With a
Good Position For the Coming School Term.

Wallace Babbage, formerly of this city, has accepted a position as first assistant in the department of mathematics at the Kentucky State University.

Mr. Babbage was assistant superintendent of the Sterling High School, and it was through his excellent work there that he has secured his good position. He will be at home this week for a vacation with his family, says Mrs. V. G. Babbage.

AN OLD TIMER

Makes a Visit to His Old Home and Friends.

Rev. S. Bramlette, of Columbus, Kansas, who has been visiting his brother, Jas. K. Bramlette, at Livingston, for several weeks, returned home Monday. He says he had a delightful visit to his old home and country after a lapse of over 40 years. He was born near Beweelyville, in 1831. He married a Miss Gannaway, who attended Mrs. R. G. Gardner's school at Hardinsburg before the war. Mrs. Bramlette has been dead eleven years. He is now living with one of his sons at Columbus, Kansas. Rev. Bramlette is 78 years old, and a fine type of the old Kentucky character before the war. He chats pleasantly of the old times; has a splendid memory, and relates many reminiscences of the early days, and the men and women of that day and time. Although he has been away from his old Kentucky home for many years, he loves the old State yet.

Whirlwind Campaign.

The second whirlwind educational campaign has been set by its originator, Supt. J. G. Crabbe, for the week beginning Sunday, June 27. On this day every minister in Kentucky is asked to preach on some phase of "Public Education in Kentucky." Each Breckenridge county minister has received a special letter asking that he comply with this request from our State Superintendent.

Dr. H. G. Shearin, President of Hamilton College, Lexington, has been assigned to do the speaking in Breckenridge county. His dates are: Union Star, July 1, 2 p. m. Stephensport, July 1, 8 p. m. New Bethel, July 2, 10 a. m. McQuady, July 2, 3 p. m. Westview, July 2, 8 p. m. Custer, July 3, 1 p. m. Garfield, July 3, 8 p. m.

At Custer there will be several other speakers, and the gathering there will be the "Rally Day" for our county. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be in attendance to hear local taxation, the county high school, the new law and other educational questions discussed.

This City.

Miss Cornelia Allen and Mr. Sidney Taul were married in the parlors of the Methodist parsonage Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. R. M. Currie in the presence of a large number of friends. The News wishes the young couple much happiness.

Harvest Hands Scarce.

The farmers say that laborers are scarce for the wheat harvest, and they fear they will be unable to employ a number sufficient to save the crop. The laborers in the tobacco factories are looking toward the wheat fields, and they probably are exodus from the city for the farms for the busy crop season. —Owensboro Inquirer.

Big Burley Tobacco Pool.

The executive committee is here giving the finishing touches to the pledge for pooling the crop of 1909. ORIGINAL RECIPES.

Cleaned by One Who Is a Gastronomist Adapt.

To serve chicken livers en brochette allow one liver and one piece of thin sliced bacon for each person. Cut the livers in four pieces and string them alternately with the bacon on skewers. Stand the skewers upright through the rack of the dripping pan and bake in a hot oven until the bacon is crisp and brown. Serve on a bed of cream.

To use up the leftover dinner fish remove the bones and flake the meat. Mix the fish with an equal part of cold boiled potatoes chopped moderately fine and warm the mass in bacon fat or butter, seasoning with butter, salt and pepper. It is a good idea to brown the fish on the bottom and then fold it like an omelet.

Smelt skewered in rings with heads and tails together, dipped in milk and flour and fried in deep fat unke an attractive fish course. Drain the plate on which they are served with cream and slices of lemon that have been dipped in minced parsley. If they are to make the main part of the meal, serve them in a mound of potato or make a potato border and serve the fish rings in a mound. The smelts may be skewered with a toothpick, and the skewer may be removed after the fish is cooked, as the ring will usually keep its shape.

The man of a certain house has a dish which he invented when he lived in bachelor quarters. He sprinkles two small slices of halibut with salt and pepper and bakes them in a gas oven until they are brown. Then he puts them on a plating hot plate and turns a Welsh rabbit over them. The men of his acquaintance eat the mixture, if the women folk do scorn it.

A baked item came to the table the other day with a lemon plug surmounting the top. The young housewife who likes things "different" had used the pointed end for her head, and raised the triangular pieces of the skin at each side for the ears and stuck in cloves for eyes. The legs and tail were toothpicks. This is a traditional garnishment for pork.

The stuffed eggs served as a fish course at a luncheon last week had been cut in two, the yolks removed, a slice cut from each end of the whites so that the eggs would stand, and the two small ends had been put together with the open cup at the top. This was heated in a water bath in a mixture of the yolk rubbed smooth with melted butter, salt, pepper, paprika and saffron. The eggs were served on white lettuce leaves and were garnished with Spanish red pepper dice and olive strips.

ATTRACTIVE SAUCES.

The Average Cook Is Not Clever at Their Construction.

Sauces and soups are the fine arts of cookery, and the person who undertakes them must understand tastes and flavors and must possess a trained palate. Each sauce should be adapted to the meat or fish or vegetable with which it is to be served. A rounding tablespoonful of butter and a rounding tablespoonful of flour will thicken half a pint of liquid.

Take care that your sauces are delicately flavored. The thickest sauce should be used for the operation, and only wooden spoons should be used for stirring. Remember also that your saucepan must be exquisitely clean and fresh if you would have your sauce a success. Let the fire be clear and not too fierce. One of the common faults to be found with our cooking is the singular lack of variety in sweet sauces. The average cook rarely serves above "sweet melted butter." More often than not boiled and steamed sweets are served without sauce of any sort. A very enjoyable dish to such as possess the necessary good digestion is roast pork, but roast pork, to be eaten at its best, should have for an accompaniment apple sauce. To prepare this sauce, pare, core and quarter one pound of apples and throw them into cold water to preserve their whiteness. Put them into a saucepan with half a cupful of water and boil closely covered until soft enough to pulp. Beat them up, adding one tablespoonful of sugar and half a tablespoonful of butter. This sauce also forms a welcome addition to roast goose and duck.

Pistachio Sauce.—Throw two ounces of pistachio nuts into boiling water and let them boil for a few minutes; then shell them. Next pound them till smooth. Mix in a basin half an ounce of cornstarch with a little cold water; then stir into the pistachio nuts and allow them to boil, stirring all the time; then add one tablespoonful of sugar, one tablespoonful of cream, one cupful of marshmallows and a few drops of vanilla extract. Strain the sauce and it is ready. This sauce looks particularly attractive with a chocolate pudding, the green sauce making a pretty contrast to the brown of the pudding. If liked, milk may be used instead of cream, and the wine may be omitted, but add instead a little lemon juice and a little more water.

New Road Preserver That Works.

The Essex county (N. J.) park commission believes that it has found the most serviceable and at the same time the simplest road preserver and dust eliminator in a cheap preparation which is made from waste pulp and mixed with water, is spread on the roads by means of an ordinary sprayer. The material has been tried on the roads of Orange park, with great success. The mixture, while holding the surface together, renders it and resists the wear of automobiles.

We do not know of any other pill that is as good as Doan's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills—small, gentle, pleasant and sure pills with a reputation. Sold by all druggists.

GOOD SAND FOR ROADS.

Value of Waste Product From California Oil Wells.

Two hundred tons of rich black oil sand from the Sunset wells at Yuma, Cal., will be used on some of the roads of Tulare county, in California, this summer. Superintendent Twaddle, chairman of the county governing board, has been experimenting and found it satisfactory. The sand comes from the wells mixed with the oil. When this flows into the pump holes the sand is separated and settles itself, the oil running off. Gradually the sand piles up around the derricks and at the mouth of the pipe and fills a large part of the pump. There are also forty feet deep on the Adeline, Matavosa road, Oil and Gate City properties, which have accumulated in the course of four or five years. The sand coming with this heavy oil is different from that found with the light oils, even that with the Kern river product.

Those who have tried it say it is superior for roads to any common sand that may be mixed with oil. It has a binding quality that is lacking in artificial products. Before its adoption in Tulare county it was used quite a little on highways in the immediate vicinity of the oil fields, it being given to whoever would load and haul it away. A wide use of this byproduct of oil producers will be a boon to the heavy oil producers of Sunset by ridding them of a nuisance and transforming it into a source of revenue.

JUST IN TIME.

Some Cloverport People May

Wait Till It's Too Late.

Don't wait until too late. Be sure to be in time. Just in time with kidney pills Means curing the back. Before backache becomes chronic; Before serious urinary troubles set in. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this. Here is Cloverport testimony to prove it.

William Johnson, Cloverport, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills in my case proved to be a very reliable remedy and I have no hesitation in recommending them. For six years my kidneys were disordered and the secretions were too frequent in passage and when allowed to stand contained a sediment. My back ached severely, particularly at night and in the morning I was so lame and sore that I could scarcely get around. Whenever I contracted the slightest cold, it settled in my kidneys and made my suffering more intense. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Fisher's drug store, have given me great relief from these troubles and I can recommend them highly."

HOLDS RUGS IN PLACE.

Clamp Fastens to Floor and Keeps Covering Flat.

Most people prefer rugs to carpets as floor coverings, but an objection that has been raised to the former is that they will not lie flat, and on a polished surface they are liable to slip from under people and cause them to fall. Then, too, many a person has tripped over the loose end of a rug, with painful results. A clever man has devised a rug clamp which corrects these faults. The clamp is a strip of metal doubled, with teeth at the free ends turned inward. A band slides over the clamp, and by running this band toward the clamping end the grip of the teeth is tightened. At the other end are sharp spikes, which are to be driven into the floor to hold the device down as securely as if it were tacked and does not "rinkle up" when walked on or when chairs or tables are moved about on it.

GOOD ROADS IN GEORGIA.

Talk of a Seven Hundred Mile Road Between Atlanta and Washington.

The Good Roads club of Georgia has started a movement for the construction of an improved highway between Atlanta and Washington, about 700 miles. The plan is that each of the counties in the different states should agree to maintain the highway after it has been completed. The rapid spread of interest in automobiles has aroused the Georgia men to the urgent need of better roads in the south, and they believe that an improved highway from Atlanta to the national capital would give a great impetus to the good roads movement all over the south.

It has been suggested by the projectors of the proposed highway that the authorities of each county agree to round up, roll and ditch one of the existing country roads from border to border and improve it with a macadam surface as soon as possible. It is believed that this plan can be carried out so that motorists will be able to travel over a continuous stretch of fairly good roads by the middle of the coming summer. It is suggested that the dirt roads which must be included in the highway be kept in condition by using soft tar drags similar to the one devised by D. Ward King of Missouri. The farmers of Georgia are just as enthusiastic over the plan as the automobilists of the state.

Sav, have you noticed the label on your paper? Does it expire in June? If it does you had better renew if you don't want it stopped.

What is the matter with the Hon. D. C. Moorman for the Senate or the Legislature. If you can get the old man harnessed up he will make things hum.

There never was a more universal feeling for one man to make a race for a county office than there is for Vic Robertson. He surely has things going his way.

There are two other men that the Democrats will make no mistake in nominating—Charley Lightfoot for Sheriff, and V. G. Babbage for County Attorney.

Ed Gregory showed the News a fine sample of Irish potatoes grown on Fisher's lot. The yield, he says, is very much better than he expected. If potatoes yield this year in proportion to the vines the crop will be immense.

That Tague natural gas light is a good one. Every street in this town ought to be lighted with them. They will not only give new light but new life to the old town. Wake up, gentlemen of the city council, and turn on the light.

The people are going to have their say in the nominations for the county offices. They are going to demand that good men, honorable men and men who are qualified to fill the offices, be nominated. And the party that puts up the cleanest men is going to get the votes.

A good Democrat from Custer in speaking of Vic Robertson for County Clerk said: "There is not a nicer, cleaner man in Breckenridge county, and everybody in our section is for him." In fact the News don't hear anything but what is favorable to his nomination.

Newspapers are town builders, town advertisers, fortune makers, news disseminators and sermon deliverers; a necessity, not a luxury. They must be given the proper support and be maintained. Without them your town would retrograde. Don't patronize them from a charitable standpoint. Patronize them because they deliver the goods; that is, if they are the right kind.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have running ears or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed for ever. No cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give you Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that can not be cured by Dr. Hays' Catarrh Cure. Send for circular.

Election of Teachers.

The school law fixes the last Saturday in June as the time for the Division Boards to meet to elect teachers for the various sub-districts. The time and place is selected by each chairman for his district. A majority of the members of a Division Board is necessary for the election of any teacher for service in any sub-district.

"Contracts for the service of all teachers shall be in writing, signed in duplicate by the teacher and by the chairman and secretary of the Division Board in which the teacher is employed."

First division—Hardinsburg, 1:30 p. m.

Second division—Cloverport, 1:30 p. m.

Third division—Union Star, 10 a. m.

Fourth division—Rosetta, 10 a. m.

Fifth division—Antioch, 1:30 p. m.

Sixth division—Glendene, 1:30 p. m.

Each trustee will be on hands promptly so as to participate in the election of teachers, on Saturday, June 26, at the hour named for his division.

I quote from Supt. Allen, of Davies county, who in publishing information for his teachers says: "These meetings will be very fine. It is generally supposed that the local trustees recommendation will be heeded, but there is no legal requirement for this." Our meetings can be private or public as each board determines after it meets.

ROAD DRAG PARADE.

Novel Movement at Sturgeon, Mo., For Good Highways.

A road drag parade half a mile in length attracted a crowd of people to Sturgeon, Mo., the other day and undoubtedly converted many who will take up the work in the future.

The parade was headed by the Sturgeon band. In carriages were the officers of the Brotherhood of Road Draggers, and then followed the drags, which were furnished by the farmers living near town. At the end of the procession an automobile owned by G. A. Pollard carried a drag, and this feature was liberally applauded along the line of march.

Sturgeon is trying to sustain her reputation of having the best dirt road of any city in the state, and the road drag is doing the work.

Irrigation and Good Roads.

J. C. Osmond, honorary vice president for Colorado of the seventeenth national irrigation congress, which will meet at Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9, recently wrote a letter to the secretary of the board of control in which, among other things, he said:

"I think a good roads convention would add greatly to the interest of the coming congress, but I go further than wanting merely good roads. I want the very best roads, and I believe that the people of the irrigation states have a claim on the government for large expenditures in the building of the principal roads through the mountainous and sparsely settled sections of the country equal in character to the best roads of France, England and Germany."

Good Move of Rural Mail Carriers.

An effort is being made to organize good roads clubs in every county in Georgia. By common consent the rural mail carriers, of whom there are about 1,500 in the state, are taking the lead in the activity and forming the nucleus for the thoroughly perfected state organization which is aimed at.

Value of Good Roads to Farmers.

It has been said that "good roads lead from good farms to good towns," and it seems a direct way of stating the fact. Wherever there are good roads leading into a town that town is invariably an active and up to date business community. Whenever good roads run through a farming region the farms are found well kept, the houses bright and in good repair, and the outbuildings show an air of snug comfort and prosperity.

STEPHENSPOORT

Mrs. Catherine Plock

On Thursday evening the spirit of Grandmother Plock winged its flight up to the City of God. Grandmother was a noble woman indeed. She was a devoted Christian, always had a word for her Master. Before marriage she was a Miss Katherine Lamer. She was 88 years old on the 27th of last December. She learned knitting as a trade in Germany. She has knit one hundred and fifty twoled spr a.s.a.d no record has been kept of the shawls, gloves, hoods, kites, socks, hose, underwear, jackets, suspenders, tidys and laces. The children from a distance who attended her funeral were: Mrs. Smith Black and son John, of Irvine, Ky.; Mrs. Kate Clearwater, of Tell City, two granddaughters of Louisville, Mrs. Fred Plummer, and Mrs. Chas. Murphy.

Why don't you outfit the household by furnishing her pure and wholesome flour? Your grocer keeps it. It's the Lewisport flour.

Pony and Sundry.

Miss Jane Lightfoot, the attractive little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Forest Lightfoot, has just recently been given a pony and surrey. She is delighted with the "turnout" and is most unselfish with it among her playmates.

New Livery Stable.

Ball & Frank have opened up a new livery stable in Hardinsburg. It is located opposite Hook's mill. They have a splendid outfit of new rigs and good horses, and the traveler can be accommodated with most any style rig he wants. Golfey Hall is the manager, and knows how to serve the public.

Good Roads Prescription.

At a recent meeting of the highway commission and road supervisors of Baltimore county, Md., Dr. Charles L. Mattfeldt, one of the highway commissioners, wrote the following prescription for good roads:

Good stone.
Use good gravel.
Tidy good base.
Dry and well packed.
Rolled and rolled.
Oiled or tarred.
And properly drained.
Dustless and waterproof.
Success will follow.

It will be noticed that the letters forming the beginning of each line spell "good roads."

Highway Maintaining Scheme.

Many German highways are free with cherry trees. When the fruit is ripe it is scattered and sold, and the proceeds go to the fund for maintaining the highways.

A Gold Road.

At Oroville in Butte county, Cal., a section of roadway has been found so rich in placer gold that an application has been made for permission to develop it. The miner who makes the application to the authorities agrees, according to newspaper reports, to replace the road by one fully as good as or better than the present one. It would seem, however, that if the city owns a gold mine it would pay better to work it and get the money for the city treasury. Not many cities in the country can boast of paying gold deposits in the public streets, and there is probably a dearth of precedents to guide the city council in its action.

Automobiles to Haul Road Drags.

At St. Louis, Mo., an effort is being made to put each automobilist to drag several tons of dirt after each rain. The theory is that the use of the drag places the earth on the crown of the road, where it dries and hardens. After such a rain a repetition on the dragging will cause more earth, will in turn harden, and after a few such applications of the drag there is a considerable increase in surface wear, which does not easily disintegrate. The employment of the motor car to haul the drag would demonstrate a hitherto unemployed utility of the machine.

GOVERNOR BANDALA OF TABASCO Finds Peruna To Be An Efficacious Remedy.

Abraham Bandala, governor of the state of Tabasco, writes from San Juan Bautista concerning Peruna.

Abraham Bandala, governor of the state of Tabasco, writes as follows:
San Juan Bautista, 6th Sept. 1906.

The Peruna Drug Mfg. Co.
Gentlemen—It gives me pleasure to say that the persons who have used the preparation Peruna for catarrhal affections have found it an efficacious cure worthy of being recommended.

You can make such use of this letter as you consider most adapted to your interests, and I beg to remain, Yours very truly, Abraham Bandala.

Other distinguished personages from Mexico have given similar statements concerning the benefit of Peruna. Prominent among these men of world-wide reputation is Dr. Augustin Rivera.

Silao, Guanajuato, Mexico.
The Peruna Drug Co.
Gentlemen—Because of the magnificent results which I have obtained from the use of your celebrated remedy, "Peruna," in several obstinate cases of nasal catarrh, I take pleasure in writing you a testimonial recommending it to the best medical advice for such cases.

I congratulate you for such a splendid preparation, and offer to you my services as the first to recommend it to my numerous customers.

Accept my most sincere testimonial, and use it as you think best for those who suffer from the disease which I have mentioned, and I am glad to sign myself as your friend. Respectfully,
Dr. Augustin Rivera.

As soon as an impartial doctor becomes acquainted with the virtues of Peruna, he is not at all surprised to be so formally recommended.

Cloverport Giants

Defeat Hardinsburg.

The Hardinsburg colored baseball team went down in defeat at the hands of the Giants, colored, of this city. It was a warm contest from start to finish, and did not end until twelve innings had been played. Jim Kay sent fourteen of the Hardinsburg team to the bench by his masterful pitching. The fielding of Walt Dyer was a feature as well as the batting of Percy Walker. Score, 11 to 10. Umpire, Ben Davis.

ST. JOHN'S DAY CELEBRATION.

Masons Celebrate Their Patron Saint Day at Hardinsburg.

Hardinsburg, Ky., (Special).—Ideal weather prevailed during the whole of the time set apart by the local Masons for the celebration of their Patron Saint Day, and a large number of the leading citizens of our town and county, as well as visitors from other counties and States, gathered on Saturday afternoon last and attended the reception tendered to the distinguished craftsmen who were announced to speak on this occasion.

Dr. and Mrs. Mather, assisted by an efficient committee of ladies, did everything in their power to make the guests welcome during their visit to the parsonage, and were nobly sustained in their efforts by a large reception committee headed by Gen. David K. Murray.

There were two disappointments as far as the program was concerned, one being the sad fact of the passing of former Governor T. T. Crittenden, of Missouri, to whom a prominent part had been assigned, and whose coming to Hardinsburg for this occasion had been looked forward to by a large number of friends, the other was the inability to be present of Postmaster Robt. E. Woods, of Louisville, who wrote at the last minute saying that a temporary attack of illness precluded his making the journey.

Rev. Dr. C. C. Woods, of St. Louis, and Dr. R. C. Blackmer, of the same city, were on hand however, as was also Hon. Logan C. Murray, of Louisville, and these gentlemen rendered excellent service in the speaking line, as also old Hon. John P. Haswell, Jr., who made an address of welcome.

The address of Dr. Woods will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. Clear, forcible and eloquent, his words went home to his audience, and we heard many expressions of approval as he warmed to his subject. In fact it is doubtful if ever a better address on Freemasonry has been heard in this county.

Dr. Blackmer is an eloquentist of the first water, and delighted his audience with two excellent recitals.

Mr. Logan Murray spoke with evident emotion to his old neighbors and friends, and told of the longing desire of his half brother, Gov. Crittenden, to be with them that day. He told of the Governor's last letter to him, which spoke of the old home associations of Breckenridge county, and thanked them for the many expressions of sympathy which had reached the family in their sad hour.

After the speaking, the ladies served refreshments, and a picture of the gathering was taken, and then everybody dispersed prior to the special meeting of Breckenridge Lodge which was held on Saturday night in the local Masonic Hall. At this meeting the degree of Master Mason was conferred on County Superintendent of Schools Joel H. Pile, and Dr. Woods, as Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons of Missouri presided, he ably assisted by Dr. R. C. Blackmer, Dr. Mather and others. About a hundred Masons were present at the meeting, and the work was done in a very impressive and efficient manner.

On Sunday morning a large and representative audience assembled in the Southern Methodist church to hear Dr. Woods, who preached an impressive sermon from the text, "For it became Him, for whom are things and by whom are all things, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through suffering." A large choir under the direction of Mrs. Blanche Reid, rendered the musical portion of the service with great effect, and Dr. Blackmer, at the request of Dr. Woods, recited, "With Should the Spirit of Man be Frowned." Dr. Woods also preached to a large audience on Sunday night in the same church. The expressions heard on all sides were a unanimous sentiment that this celebration had been one of the most notable events held here for a long time, and much good will undoubtedly followed such a worthy occasion.

John D. Babidge.

Cloverport, Ky.

Dear Friend John—I notice that my subscription for the Breckenridge News expires this month. Inclosed please find my check for renewal of same.

The old Breckenridge News is like getting a letter from home every week, and while I am very much delighted with my Western home I am still loyal to my old Kentucky home.

I have a nice hotel and my business is fine, and I would not exchange this location for any other I have ever had.

Remember me kindly to all of my Kentucky friends. Your old friend,
Henry W. Herndon.

What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm masters catarrh, promptly. But you know the old saying about the cure of prevention. Therefore use Ely's Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., Warren Street, New York.
